free
METHODIST
WORLD MISSIONS

Missionaries in France since 1998, the Kleins first partnered with FMWM as VISA affiliates in 2003. Then in 2005 the Kleins were appointed as extended-term missionaries and moved to the Alsace region of France. They work with FM churches in France and Belgium, helping them grow and multiply. They organize conferences, retreats and training events for nationals and missionaries. Marvin is a member of the European Leadership Team and does Europe-wide planning.

Birthdays: Marvin - 9/7 Lisa - 10/15

Pray for:

- plans to start a recovery ministry (i.e., “Celebrate Recovery”) in 2009
- plans to take short-term teams from the U.S. to Kibogora, Rwanda, to work at the hospital and school there
- wisdom as the Kleins consult with local churches
- nothing to hinder God’s work in France and Europe (health, legal issues, family, conflicts, etc.)
- Ian, a University of Washington graduate, who plans to attend graduate school in NY, fall 2009
- Elyse, a student at Seattle Pacific University, where she majors in French and education
- Amélie, a high school student at Black Forest Academy (Germany); she commutes daily from across the Rhine in France
