Phyllis Sortor
Africa/Nigeria

free
METHODIST
WORLD MISSIONS

Phyllis arrived in Nigeria in February 2005 where she works through leadership development and International Child Care Ministries (ICCM). She is financial administrator of Hope Academy and the new Hope extension school at Ikot Ntuk. A special friendship with a clan of nomadic Fulani has given Phyllis the opportunity to open a third extension school and mission center in Kogi state to minister to Fulani children and their parents, as well as the Bassa-Nge villagers. Phyllis teaches at the modular Bible school and WEST (Wesley Evangelical School of Theology) and supports Community Health Evangelism and area women's literacy projects.

Birthday: 10/21

E-mail: phyl.sortor@gmail.com

Pray for:

- Phyllis' health on the field
- God's continued blessing on Hope Academy and ICCM
- Muslim ministry
- safety in travel
- the Nigerian church to grow in God's grace
- the Sortor family stateside
